Temporary Food Assistance – Up to 6 Months

This program serves neighbors during moments of transition, instability, or crisis that lead to food insecurity — such as job loss, reduction in income, food insecurity, medical emergencies, unexpected expenses, housing instability, or delays in benefits.

Through our Neighbor Choice Food Pantry model, participants select the food they take home, providing both nourishment and dignity during challenging times.

Assistance Duration: Up to 6 months after initial intake

Questions? Call us at 512-303-0033 or email us at info@bastropfoodpantry.org

Ongoing Food Assistance – 1 Year, Renewable

This program provides long-term support for neighbors experiencing chronic food insecurity — including low-income or fixed-income seniors, individuals with disabilities, and unhoused or precariously housed individuals.

Participants in this program also benefit from our Neighbor Choice Food Pantry, choosing the food that best meets their needs and preferences.

Assistance Duration: 1 year after intake, with opportunity to reapply annually

If you are unhoused, precariously housed, or a senior, please call 512-303-0033 (or email us at info@bastropfoodpantry.org to discuss available services.
